is “Not Ripe for Review” at This Time Given Ongoing Go-Shop Process*

Connecticut Water Affirms Commitment to Open Go-Shop Process and Plans to Submit Application for Regulatory Approval After Conclusion of Go-Shop Process

Clinton, Conn., June 8, 2018 – Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (NASDAQ: CTWS) (“Connecticut Water”) issued the following statement:

The draft decision issued today by the Connecticut Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (PURA) to dismiss without prejudice the joint application of SJW Group and Connecticut Water for approval of a change of control was understandable given the active go-shop process in place. Connecticut Water understands PURA’s interest in conserving their resources and conducting their review once the go-shop process is completed. We look forward to making our PURA filing at the appropriate time following the conclusion of our previously announced go-shop process.

The June 8, 2018 PURA decision states that the application is “not ripe for review by the Authority” and concludes that Connecticut Water may file a new application “after its go-shop process is concluded and Connecticut Water has determined all the details of any proposed change of control or merger for which it seeks Authority approval.” The PURA decision further notes that, “upon receipt of any such new application, the Authority will open a new docket and commence a new 120-day review process.”

The application for the change in control was made on May 4, 2018, prior to Connecticut Water’s May 31, 2018 announcement that the merger agreement with SJW Group had been amended to include a go-shop process for Connecticut Water.
