

SJW Group Comments on Termination of Connecticut Water Go-Shop Process and Reiterates Its Support of the Merger with Connecticut Water

San Jose, CA – June 18, 2018 – SJW Group (NYSE: SJW) today commented on the termination of Connecticut Water Service, Inc.’s (NASDAQ: CTWS) (“Connecticut Water”) “go-shop” process related to the merger with SJW Group.

Robert A. Van Valer, the lead independent director of SJW Group’s Board of Directors and trustee of the Roscoe Moss Jr. Revocable Trust, which is the largest stockholder of the company, said, “We are pleased that Connecticut Water has verified and validated the superior value of our merger. We look forward to providing the shareholders of both companies with the opportunity to vote on the transaction as soon as possible and then moving towards completion, so that we can begin to deliver the transaction’s anticipated immediate and long-term value to shareholders and its benefits to customers, all of our employees and the communities we serve.

“We remain committed to our signed, definitive agreement to merge with Connecticut Water as the superior path forward for our stockholders and all of our constituents. We continue to work toward completing the merger, which includes a special meeting of stockholders to vote on the transaction and taking the necessary steps to receive the appropriate regulatory approvals.”

SJW Group will mail to stockholders its proxy statement and GREEN proxy card as well as additional information about its merger with Connecticut Water. SJW Group urges its stockholders to vote the GREEN proxy card FOR all proposals related to the merger with Connecticut Water.

Forward Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “seeks,” “approximately,” “intends,” “plans,” “estimates,” “projects,” “strategy,” or “anticipates,” or the negative of those words or other comparable terminology. The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, but not limited to, the following factors: (1) the risk that the conditions to the closing of the proposed business combination transaction between SJW Group and Connecticut Water Service, Inc. (“Connecticut Water”) may not be satisfied or waived, including the risk that required approvals from the security holders of each party to the proposed transaction are not obtained; (2) the risk that the regulatory approvals required for the proposed transaction are not obtained, or that in order to obtain such regulatory approvals, conditions are imposed that adversely affect the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction or cause the parties to abandon the proposed transaction; (3) the risk that the anticipated tax treatment of the proposed transaction is not obtained; (4) the effect of water, utility, environmental and other governmental policies and regulations; (5) litigation relating to the proposed transaction; (6) uncertainties as to the timing of the consummation of the proposed transaction and the ability of each party to consummate the proposed transaction; (7) risks that the proposed transaction disrupts the current plans and operations of Connecticut Water or SJW Group; (8) the ability of Connecticut Water and SJW Group to retain and hire key personnel; (9) competitive responses to the proposed transaction; (10) unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the proposed transaction; (11) potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the proposed transaction; (12) the combined companies' ability to achieve the growth prospects and synergies expected from the proposed transaction, as well as delays, challenges and expenses associated with integrating the combined companies' existing businesses; and (13) legislative and economic developments. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that is included in the registration statement on Form S-4 that has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") in connection with the proposed transaction. In addition, actual results are subject to other risks and uncertainties that relate more broadly to SJW Group's overall business, including those more fully described in its filings with the SEC, including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2018, and Connecticut Water's overall business and financial condition, including those more fully described in its filings with the SEC, including its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2018. Forward looking statements are not guarantees of performance, and speak only as of the date made, and neither SJW Group or its management nor Connecticut Water or its management undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements except as required by law.
